NEW YORK (UPI)—The Federal Reserve Bank of New York has finished drying out $21,000,000 worth of cheques that were dredged out of the East River where an airliner crashed last week, killing 65 people.

Starlings Hit Town

Victoria is threatened by an invasion of troublesome starlings.

Every year they are migrating farther west, Dr. Clifford Carl of the provincial museum said yesterday. More than 9,000 of the birds are now making their headquarters in Beacon Hill Park.

However, they should leave for nesting on the mainland "fairly soon," he said.

"But they will probably nest in Victoria in a few years and then we will have a real problem," he forecast.
